Located on a scenic hilltop in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, Villa Angela at St. Anne Home provides assisted living in a caring, residential setting. Villa Angela is a 44-apartment community that offers a wide variety of wellness services, including health assessments, rehabilitation and exercise programs, and medication management, as well as assistance with daily routines, such as cooking, laundry, and cleaning.

Opened as an extension of the St. Anne Home mission and ministry, Villa Angela began serving older adults in 1998. St. Anne Home, with its management staff led by the Felician Sisters, has a tradition of providing care and companionship in a Christian environment. Residents of Villa Angela may attend daily religious services in a spacious chapel. St. Anne Home has a chaplain in residence and regularly invites other clergy to conduct services.

Villa Angela at St. Anne Home is just a few minutes away from downtown Greensburg and even closer to local shopping such as the Westmoreland Mall and Davis Shopping Center. It features several apartment styles, all of which have separate bathrooms. Many units are also equipped with a tea kitchen. Each of Villa Angela's three levels is also "home" having a large community living room, kitchen, and breakfast nook.

Residents of Villa Angela at St. Anne Home can feel confident knowing that if they need nursing care they have access to the best intermediate and skilled nursing care located on the same campus. If you are considering a move for yourself or a loved one, schedule your tour today and see for yourself why there's no place like Villa Angela at St. Anne Home!
